Rogers Foundation announces date for gala Foundation to 'celebrate the light' on Nov. 12

Oconomowoc – The Rogers Memorial Hospital Foundation will hold its annual "Celebrate the Light Gala" on Saturday, Nov. 12, 2011, at the Pfister Hotel in Milwaukee.

The Gala, which is the foundation's premier fundraising event of the year, raises funds in support of patients and their families in treatment at Rogers Memorial Hospital and its five Wisconsin locations.

Rick and Stacie Andritsch of Oconomowoc and Dave and Edie Werner of Waukesha, both long-term supporters and board members with the Foundation, will be the host couples for this year's event.

"There are so many misconceptions about mental illness," said Rick Andritsch, "This event brings mental health to the forefront and helps save lives by raising the necessary funds for patients in need to complete their treatment process."

Table sponsorships are priced at $2,500 to $20,000 and individual tickets are $225 each. To learn more about how you can help, please contact the foundation office at 262-646-1646 or infofdn@rogershospital.org.

Rogers Memorial Hospital is Wisconsin's largest not-for-profit behavioral health care provider and is ranked as one of the top specialized psychiatric hospitals in the nation for anxiety, depression, eating disorders, mood disorders and substance use disorders.

Established in 1907, Rogers Memorial Hospital has the expertise and experience found only in a stand-alone, not-for-profit behavioral health hospital. Its specialized programs are known for their effectiveness in treating children, teens and adults with anxiety disorders, mood disorders, eating disorders and substance-use disorders. The hospital uses proven, evidence-based treatments coupled with strong patient and family education. Rogers offers treatment programs at five Wisconsin locations: Oconomowoc, Milwaukee, Madison, Kenosha and Brown Deer. Rogers creates an environment where patients and their families know what tomorrow will bring: Life. Worth. Living.
